PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT NOTIFICATION

INTERIM CONDITION

Name: Nathan Torti

Registration: RCT-17-022

Effective Date: November 17, 2026

Notice: Pursuant to section 40(1)(b) of the Counselling Therapists Act, the NSCCT Complaints Committee imposed an interim condition on Nathan Torti's license and registration as a counselling therapist effective November 17, 2026.

Under this Decision, Nathan Torti shall refrain from providing therapeutic services to female clients until this matter is resolved, with the exception that Mr. Torti shall contact or meet with each of his existing clients to ensure their comfortable referral to another Registered Counselling Therapist. Mr. Torti shall not take on any additional female clients during this period, and shall only contact or meet with his existing female clients to assist with continuity of care.

This is an interim decision. There are currently no findings against Nathan Torti.

This interim condition shall remain in effect until lifted, superseded or annulled by the Complaints Committee or the Professional Conduct Committee of the College, as the case may be.

This and any other notice of any aspect of a complaint against Nathan Torti is made pursuant to s. 40(6) of the Counselling Therapist Act.

Enquiries: Please direct any enquiries to the Director of Complaints and Professional Conduct via email to professionalconduct@nscct.ca